The image shows a screenshot of a question editor interface. On the left, there are two text input fields: "Question Title" containing "Untitled Question" and "Help Text". To the right of these fields is a large empty text area. On the far right, there are three icons: a pencil (Edit), a document with a plus sign (Duplicate), and a trash can (Delete). Arrows from the labels "Edit", "Duplicate", and "Delete" at the top point to these icons. Two large green arrows point from the right side of the text area towards the "Question Title" and "Help Text" fields, indicating where to enter the question and help text.
